

CHRISTIE, PARKER & HALE PARTNER THOMAS J. DALY NAMED TRUSTEE OF L.A. COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (July 17, 2008) – Christie, Parker & Hale, LLP (CPH), one of Southern California’s leading intellectual property law firms, announced today that senior partner Thomas J. Daly was installed as a trustee by the Los Angeles County Bar Association (LACBA) for a one-year term. Daly represents the Pasadena Bar Association—one of the six largest affiliate bar associations of LACBA—where he currently is president-elect.

Daly, who joined CPH in 1983, has over 20 years’ experience in intellectual property law. His practice specializes in patents, trademarks, unfair competition, copyrights, trade secrets, intellectual property strategy, transactions and licensing. He is a member of the firm-wide management committee and chairs the CPH marketing committee. Daly has been named to the Southern California Super Lawyer list of intellectual-property practitioners for the past four consecutive years.
